PRINT THIS DOCUMENT AND CARRY IT WITH YOUR PASSPORT WHEN TRAVELLING

The details above reflect the electronic record of your visa held by Immigration New Zealand (INZ). You do not require a visa label in your passport. Do not attempt to alter this letter. It is an offence under the Immigration Act 2009 to use a document that you know has been altered.

Please check that the above visa details match your passport before you travel and contact INZ immediately if there are any errors.

You may be asked to show this letter when you check in for your flight to New Zealand and/or when you arrive at the New Zealand border. If you cannot show this letter when asked, the airline may not let you board your flight or you may be delayed when entering New Zealand.

How can you prove your visa details without a visa label in your passport?

Your employer can verify the details of your visa online using VisaView. With your consent, other people or organisations such as health care providers or travel agents can verify the details of your visa using the Visa Verification Service. See: immigration.govt.nz/visaview

Do you have a new passport?

If you get a new passport while this visa is still valid, you must request INZ to update your visa details so that they match your new passport. INZ's website has information on how to do this: immigration.govt.nz/transfervisa

You must not remain in New Zealand after your visa expires

You must hold a valid visa at all times while you are in New Zealand. If you do not hold a valid visa you will be in New Zealand unlawfully and you will be liable for deportation. If you do not leave voluntarily before you are served with a deportation order you will face a prohibition period preventing your return to New Zealand in the future.
